

All About Herb...

Herb Dixon was born in Vancouver, British Columbia but grew up in the heart of the west, that original cow-town, Calgary, Alberta. As a teenager, he discovered he could make people laugh - really laugh! With his rubber face, his ability to recreate sounds, and his talent to tell an engaging story, it seemed he was destined for a career in comedy. So, in 1979 he began making club audiences laugh as an amateur comic in Vancouver's comedy Clubs.

Twenty Years have passed from the time Herb decided to become an entertainer. All the while, Herb has built and honed his material on his way up the ladder of comedy.

Today, Herb Dixon is one of North America's most sought-after comedy's acts!

Comedy Entertainment for All Events!

From corporate conventions to cruise ships to headline performances with some of today's biggest stars, Herb Dixon finds a way to have fun with every audience. Herb is known as one of the most consistent corporate performers. He adapts his routines depending on the audience's response to his jokes. "I don't tell 'R' rated jokes to a 'G' rated house," Herb explains. "One of my definite strengths is my ability to read an audience."
